

CITIZENSHIP PREPARATION RESOURCES

Citizenship Resource Center - <http://www.uscis.gov/citizenship> - This is the official U.S. government website. The government site has tools, sample tests, videos of interviews, study materials and links to other resources, including a Multilingual Resource Center link.

Podcasts - <http://www.uscitizenpod.com/>

Podcasts on iTunes - <http://uscitizenpod.wikispaces.com/>

Citizenship Teachers - www.uscis.gov/citizenship/teachers

Preparing for the Oath - <http://americanhistory.si.edu/citizenship/>

iCivics - Free Lesson Plans and Games for Learning Civics - <https://www.icivics.org>

New England Literacy Resource Center - www.nelrc.org/index.html - links to publications that may help adult learning. There is also a link to webinars, as well as a Civics Participation & Citizenship Collection page, which leads to other materials and resources.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts' web site - information for Massachusetts citizens - <http://www.sec.state.ma.us/cis/cisidx.htm> - has a history section.

The State of Minnesota's website - <http://mnliteracy.org/educators/citizenshipinstructions/resources> - for citizenship training has good, basic materials (e.g. checklists for students) as well as teaching resources.

City University of New York's website - www.cuny.edu/about/resources/citizenship/us\_citizenship/TestPrep/TeacherResource.html - on citizenship has a section just for teachers

The Office of North Carolina Basic Skills website - <http://ncbsonline.net/EL%20Civics.htm#Citizenship> - has a valuable resources section and a Citizenship Preparation Curriculum. The Curriculum includes: Citizenship Course Outline, Lesson Plans, Flash Cards, Pre-Test & Post-Test. For English Literacy and Civics Education -

<http://www.cal.org/adultesl/resources/briefs/english-literacy-and-civics-education.php>

For Civics Education for Adult English Language Learners (Lynda Terrill, 2000) -

<http://www.cal.org/adultesl/resources/digests/civics-education-for-adult-english-language-learners.php>